

Mansion in May 1997 — Vail Mansion

Morristown, New Jersey

Davies Associates Landscape Architects in the border of this mansion, filled with colorful flowering rhododendrons, azaleas, perennials, and annuals. The garden was located by the Community Theatre in Morristown and incorporated a stone wall and steps leading up to the central lawn panel in front of the old Vail Mansion. A sculpture of a young girl was placed as a focal point in the border. The garden was constructed as a benefit for the Women's Association of Morristown Memorial Hospital.
