

Madison Train Station

Madison, New Jersey

The restoration of the historic Madison Train Station began in 2000 and was completed in 2009. The goal was to complement the historic building and provide an attractive, comfortable landscape for commuters. The gardens surrounding the train station and on the slopes of the elevated platform are anchored by flowering and evergreen trees. Shrubs, perennials, and groundcovers fill the slopes with seasonal color and texture.

Davies Associates Landscape Architects, LLC

364 Parsippany Road, Suite 7B Parsippany, New Jersey 07054 T. 973.206.1605 F. 973.206.1606 www.bjdavies.com